WILL INCOME DOCUMENTATION THAT I SUBMIT EXPIRE AT ANY POINT?

- Any income documentation that you submit as part of your Borrower Assistance Application should be dated within 90 days of the time documentation is received by Rushmore. Generally, a decision will be made on your Borrower Assistance Application prior to the time that documentation you submit would expire.
- Income documentation includes items that would document your monthly income, such as paycheck stubs and bank statements.

WILL I BE CONSIDERED FOR ALL TYPES OF LOSS MITIGATION OPTIONS?

- We service loans for many different types of loan owners. Each loan owner decides what options to offer and when and under what circumstances they will be offered. Some loan owners may not offer loan modification options or may limit the number of times or the time periods during which it will offer certain options. Some loan owners may offer different options depending on whether the property is a primary residence, second home or investment property or is vacant. You will be considered for all loss mitigations that are offered by the particular owner of your loan for the particular type of loan that you have.
- If your loan is a government-insured loan (e.g., FHA, VA or USDA), the government agency determines what options may be offered and when they may be offered.
- If your loan is eligible for evaluation under Government's Home Affordable Modification Program ("HAMP"), we will determine if you qualify for a modification under HAMP before evaluating you for any available proprietary loan modification. HAMP regulations determine who is eligible and when loan modifications must be offered. In addition, your loan owner must have agreed at the time it acquired your loan that it would be HAMP eligible.

WILL MY CREDIT SCORE BE AFFECTED?

- We are required to report the delinquency status of your loan to the credit reporting agencies in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Consumer Data Industry Association requirements.
- The acceptance of a foreclosure prevention option may affect your credit score, depending on your individual credit history. Credit scoring companies generally consider entering to a plan with reduced payments as increasing your credit risk. Therefore, entering into a plan with reduced payments may adversely affect your credit score, particularly if you are current on your loan or otherwise have a good score.

WILL THERE BE ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES?

- Depending on the loss mitigation option or terms of an option you are offered, there may be tax consequences to such a transaction. For example, debt forgiveness may be taxable income to you.
- Rushmore is not a law firm. You should consult your tax advisor or an attorney about any potential tax consequences of an offered loss mitigation option.

WILL YOU CONTINUE COLLECTION OR FORECLOSURE ACTIVITIES?

- You should continue to make all required monthly payments on your loan if you can.
- We may continue collection and/or foreclosure activity as allowed under applicable federal and state laws until a foreclosure prevention option has been approved and is completed.
- If you submit a complete Borrower Assistance Application, we will not commence a foreclosure proceeding unless:
 - You do not accept an offered option within the specified time period.
 - You are denied for all available options to foreclosure and any applicable appeal period has expired.
 - You breach the terms of the option you were offered and you accepted.

WHAT IF MY PROPERTY IS SCHEDULED FOR A FORECLOSURE SALE?

- In general, we will not evaluate a Borrower Assistance Application that is submitted shortly before a scheduled foreclosure sale date. This means that, in general, in order for your Application to be evaluated, your complete Borrower Assistance Application must be received by Rushmore:
 - For HAMP eligible loans: at least 7 business days prior to the scheduled foreclosure sale date
 - If the property is in California, Minnesota, Nevada or Washington and is your primary residence: at least 7 business days prior to the scheduled foreclosure sale date
 - For all other loans: at least 38 calendar days prior to the scheduled foreclosure sale date
- If a foreclosure sale is pending but there is no specific date scheduled for the sale, a court with jurisdiction over the foreclosure or a public official charged with carrying out the sale may not halt the sale even if we approve you for a foreclosure alternative prior to the sale.

WILL I NEED AN APPRAISAL ON MY HOME?

Depending on the type of option, you may receive a call from a property appraiser and/or real estate broker to make arrangements to gain access to your property to determine its value. The cost of the appraisal will be added to your loan account.

In connection with your recent loss mitigation request we may order an appraisal or valuation to determine the property's value, and may charge you for this appraisal or valuation. You have the right to receive a copy of any appraisal or valuation that is performed on your property. Upon completion, Rushmore will promptly provide you with a copy of any appraisal or valuation, even if your application is not approved. You can pay for an additional appraisal for your own use at your own cost.

GLOSSARY OF CERTAIN LOSS MITIGATION OPTION TERMS

Repayment Plan – Allows you to pay past due amounts on your loan over a specified time period to bring your loan current. Each plan payment includes your regular monthly payment plus a portion of the past due amount. The term of the loan will vary based on your ability to repay.

Trial Period Plan/Forbearance – Forbearance allows you to temporarily suspend or reduce your payments for a specified time period. Under a trial period payment plan, you make specified payments over a short period of time to demonstrate your ability and willingness to pay a specified amount. The payment under a trial period plan may be higher than the original payment amount when your loan was originated.

Most of our loan owners require that you make a good faith payment (which is generally a percentage of the past due debt) in connection with a trial period payment plan. A Rushmore Home Retention Specialist can tell you if your loan owner normally requires a good faith payment and what the amount would be based on your loan owner's guidelines. As part of the borrower assistance application, you will be asked to submit proof that you have funds available for a good faith payment. You may submit a borrower assistance application even if you have less funds available for a good faith payment than that your Home Retention Specialist tells you is typically required, or if you do not have any funds available for such a payment. No payment is required to submit an application for a loan modification and no payment is required until after you have been approved for a trial period payment plan. If you are approved for a trial period payment plan, your plan will specify the amount of any required good faith payment. You must make your good faith payment for your plan to become effective. Any required good faith payment will be in addition to your regular monthly plan payments. The good faith payment is applied to reduce your outstanding debt.

Loan Modification – Permanently modifies the terms of your loan. May change one or more terms of your loan in order to help you bring a defaulted loan current and prevent foreclosure. A loan modification may include one or more of the following:

- An interest rate reduction
- In certain cases, a forgiveness of a portion of principal
- An extension of the maturity of the debt
- Spreading the past due amount over the remaining term
- A deferment of a portion of the outstanding debt.

Short Refinance – Allows you to refinance your loan at less than the remaining balance of your loan. The owner of your loan agrees to forgive some of the principal balance. In most cases, you will be responsible for the costs of obtaining the new loan.

Short Sale – Allows you to sell your home for less than the remaining balance on your loan. The agreed upon net sale price of the home must be acceptable to the owner of your loan. The debt may be satisfied at the agreed upon sale price and terms. If the short sale is completed, you will not be responsible for the costs of sale (e.g., broker fees). Relocation assistance may be offered.

Deed-in-Lieu - A voluntary deed of the ownership of your home to the owner of your loan in satisfaction of some or all of your obligations under your loan. This action will not save your home but may aid you in qualifying for another mortgage in the future. This option may have a less negative impact on your credit than a foreclosure. There cannot be any problems with the title to your property, such as outstanding liens that cannot be satisfied. Rushmore will request a title report on your home. If a deed-in-lieu is not completed, the costs of this report will be added to your loan balance. Relocation assistance may be offered.

Reinstatement – Payment of the total amount you owe in a lump sum payment and by a specific date. This brings your loan current. This may follow a forbearance.

Consent to Judgment – If you are unsuccessful in selling your home and do not qualify for a Deed-in-Lieu because of outstanding liens, this option may be available to you. You agree to a quick foreclosure. Relocation assistance may be offered.

Settlement – A mutual agreement between you and Rushmore whereby Rushmore, on behalf of the loan owner, agrees to accept less than the full amount of your loan balance in full satisfaction of your loan. You retain full ownership of your home.
